The Earth
Conduction
ritual.

The form of training
that has been passed
down the Sonzou sect
of the Houou school
of Zen Buddhism
for generations.

Now is a good time to explain...

うーん

YOU
ARE A GOOD
COUNSEL, HOWEVER...

A
member
of the
Sonzou
sect...

Climbs
into a large barrel...

The
selected
monk...

In
accordance with the
Houou
Festival.

Performs
the ritual
once every
seven years
without fail.

And the
cave-legged

While the monk can
breathe
through a
bamboo
pipe.

And remains
underground
for
seven
days.

The
barrel
is then buried.

All they can do is continuously
chant Buddhist
prayers.

They
can neither
eat nor drink
for the entire duration...

One must
have immense
willpower to complete it.

It is a harsh
and
severe
undertaking.

Not
even
while
buried
underground

They
will show
that their body and spirit will
not falter ..

Half of all
participants must undergo lengthy
medical treatment
afterwards,
having become
a shell of their former selves.

It is a
truly life-
threatening
ritual!
